

Ideas for Excellent Reading Opportunities

Reading Fairy is a Whitstable-based company created by early reading experts and Reading Fairy classes are designed to develop crucial building blocks for learning to read from 0-5 years. Some classes are run from St Alphege and families can find out more through the school office, or further information from the website.

<http://readingfairy.com/>

Whitstable Library provides a fantastic local resource for reading and story-telling

<http://webapps.kent.gov.uk/KCC.Libraries.Web.Sites.Public/LibraryDetails.aspx?aid=0&lid=13&uprn=100062300410>

The Guardian Website has some great bedtime story ideas.

theguardian

<http://www.theguardian.com/books/booksblog/2014/feb/25/kids-bedtime-books-reread-children>

The Literacy Trust is a useful website for new titles.

<http://wordsforlife.literacytrust.org.uk/?gclid=Civ7vdPFh8QCFQLMtAodBFgAhA>

The Book Trust has a great website where multi-cultural stories can be found.

<http://www.booktrust.org.uk/books/children/books-from-around-the-world/multicultural-books/#/d/books/bookfinder/109>

The International children's digital library has a wealth of stories to visit on-line from all around the world.

<http://en.childrenslibrary.org/>

Oxford Owl Reading has 250 free eBooks for you to share with your child. Simple ideas, top tips, activities and games can help your child with their reading at home.

https://www.google.co.uk/search?q=oxford+owls+ebooks&biw=1366&bih=673&source=Im&sa=X&ei=fT3zVPHoI8iP7AaKqIAY&ved=0CAUQ_AUoAA&dpr=1

The children's books guide reviews the best books for your children.

<http://childrensbooksguide.com/bedtime>

The Super Nanny website and APP have lots of ideas for stories and support for bedtimes.

<http://www.supernanny.co.uk/Advice/-/Learning-and-Education/-/0-to-4-years/The-best-new-bedtime-books-.aspx>

